

English Speaking Weekend Conference 2018

Provisional Programme

Friday 28 September 2018

At the Institute of Psychoanalysis, Byron House, 112a Shirland Road, London W9 2BT

6.30 – 8pm                      Clinical seminars
8pm – 9.30pm                Welcome reception

Clinical seminars led by senior analysts of the British Psychoanalytic Society will offer an opportunity for discussing ongoing psychoanalytic work in a small group. One participant from each group will be contacted well ahead of the conference with an invitation to present.

Seminar leaders: Rosemary Davies, Julia Fabricius, Michael Feldman, Angela Joyce, Leon Kleimberg, Gregorio Kohon, Caroline Polmear, Priscilla Roth

Participants will be asked to indicate their preference for a seminar leader, which we will try to accommodate.

Saturday 29 September 2018

At the Royal College of Physicians, 11 St Andrews Pl, Regent's Park, London NW1 4LE

9am – 5.30pm

First panel - speakers in dialogue: Catalina Bronstein and Donald Campbell

Catalina Bronstein
Inflicting pain - the body and its boundaries

Donald Campbell
From Violence to its Depiction

Chair: Alessandra Lemma

Lunch

Second panel - speakers in dialogue: Maria Rhode and Christine Anzieu-Premmereur

Maria Rhode
Finding One's Feet - Body Affect and Identifications in a Pre-Autistic Toddler
Learning to Walk

Christine Anzieu-Premmereur
Bodily Experiences and the Developing Capacity for Representation -
Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy with an Autistic Toddler and her Depressed
Mother

Chair: Robin Anderson

5.30pm – 8pm

Party with drinks, light food and jazz
Music presented by The Gypsy Dreamers

Sunday 30 September 2018

At the Royal College of Physicians, 11 St Andrews Place, London NW1 4LE

9.30am – 12pm

Third panel - speakers in dialogue: Jonathan Sklar and Megan Virtue

Jonathan Sklar
Body, Affect, Representation - Environmental Failure, Creative Life and Countertransference

Megan Virtue
On not being able to dream

Chair: Joan Schachter

12pm to 1pm

Final plenary with all speakers