

On Stupidity

8 March 2019

Speakers

Paul Clinton is a writer, curator and editor based in London, UK.

For four years he was a senior editor at the international art and culture magazines Frieze and Frieze Masters, before leaving to work as a writer and take up the post of lecturer in curating at Goldsmiths. His writing has appeared in magazines such as Frieze, the London Review of Books, MOUSSE, Art Monthly, Art Review and The White Review.

In 2015, he curated the group exhibition 'duh? Art & Stupidity' featuring almost thirty international artists, with performances, new commissions and public artworks.

Sacha Golob is a Senior Lecturer in Philosophy at King's College London and the Co-Director of the Centre for Philosophy and the Visual Arts (CPVA). Before joining King's, he was a Fellow at Peterhouse, Cambridge. He has published extensively on modern French and German Philosophy and the Philosophy of Art. His current research looks at contemporary conceptions of degeneration, transformation and virtue.

www.sachagolob.com

William Badenhorst is a psychoanalyst with the British Psychoanalytical Society, a psychiatrist in private practice and at CNWL NHS Foundation Trust, and Honorary Clinical Senior Lecturer at Imperial College London.

Chair:

Alla Rubitel is a psychoanalyst with the British Psychoanalytical Society, a consultant psychiatrist in the NHS and Honorary Clinical Senior Lecturer at Imperial College London.